

Dear Debbie

Thank you very much to you, Chef, Ricky and the team for the most delicious food for my party. The variety and tastes catered for all my guests, including some very discerning 'foodies'. I know that business cards were asked for. The seamless preparation and serving is especially worth mentioning – your team were very professional and the timing of each course was perfect. My kitchen was left spotless and the little bit of leftover Chicken Makhani Curry that I found in the fridge got devoured by my family with gusto the next day.

I look forward to working together with Sense of Taste again at the next special celebration that we may host.

Regards
Vanessa
